SALEM COLLEGE

SIGHTS & INSIGHTS 1993

DEDICATION

Ellen J. McEwen, affectionately known to the entire student body as Coach, has given so much of herself to Salem. Not only does she coach both volleyball and tennis, but she also teaches Physical Education classes, serves on committees, and participates in Salem activities. Whether she's on the court, dealing cards at Casino night, or vacationing with a group of students in Bermuda, Coach McEwen's irrepressible wit does not go unnoticed. Both her eternal smile and laughter exemplify her true feelings of Salem Spirit. The editors and staff of Sights and Insights dedicate the 1993 Salem College yearbook to Coach Ellen J. McEwen. In all honesty -- Salem loves her!

A Different Point of View

Salem College provides her students with a unique perspective. Being a women's college set in a historical district allows Salem students to see things in a different light. She gives her students the power to enter the world with the confidence to succeed as well as a respect for where they have been. This truly wonderful place gives us all ... A Different Point of View.

STUDENT LIFE

YOU OUGHT TO BE IN PICTURES

On August 21st, 114 Freshmen arrived with all their worldly belongings and were kidnapped by their Hall Advisers. They were introduced to all the facets of Salem -- including clubs, academics, SGA, $5 fines and the Honor Code. Freshmen got to know their roommates and participated in hall bonding activities. Each day of orientation the freshmen began to feel at home in the long tradition of Sisterhood.

The Orientation Committee, led by Leigh Murrow, worked during the summer to make sure the freshmen learned everything they needed to know about Salem.

Holly and Anna build masterpiece ice cream sundaes

Hannah introduces the freshmen to Suzy Salem.

Alice, Shan, and Sarah model their Peer Adviser t shirts.

The 3rd floor Gramley family bands on the soccer field.

Lisa and Meredith learn to trust each other during an afternoon of games.

Leigh Murrow flashes that welcoming smile.

Susie, Ellen, Margaret, Stacey, Marisa, Tracey, Yalanda and Mary Elizabeth work together with their hall to get up off the ground.

OPENING

Students from all classes enjoy Opening Convocation.

Paula, Heather, and Alecia prepare to face the new year.

Jo and Jennifer look forward to their senior year.

CONVOCATION

Junior Marshals dressed in white dresses and gold sashes look smashing.

Beth and Erin are all smiles after Opening Convocation.

Opening Convocation began the 221st session of Salem College. The seniors wore their caps and gowns and the freshmen were introduced to one of Salem's strongest traditions. Students and faculty at convocation prepared for the new academic year while saying good-bye to summer. After the candle-lighting ceremony everyone was enthusiastic about facing the challenges that lie ahead.

FALL FEST

Toga-clad seniors sing their praises of Salem.

Freshman beg Sandra Dee to 'tell us more, tell us more' during their class skit.

Paula and Nicole prepare to lead the juniors Under the Sea.

BURN YOUR BRA IT'S MARDI GRAS

5:00 a.m. What's that? It's Wednesday and everyone's asleep — except the seniors. They are stampeding through the halls, screaming, pounding on and kicking doors. Isn't this hazing? No, it's just Fall Fest. What a great day! This year Sa-lemites got to experience a Mardi Gras of their own — complete with Bacchus, the party god of the seniors, the sophomores in tacky 70's clothes, and two versions of 'Oh What a Night' by the sister classes of '94 and '96.

Greek Goddesses Mollye, Amy and Tina grace us with their presence on Fall Fest.

Amy has Saturday Night Fever.

The seniors complete with togas, wine and Bacchus, float by on their Greek barge.

Amy and Cherie make the perfect mermaids on the junior float.

Gretchen, Jen, Courtney and Anderson, a.k.a. The "Yellow" Ladies, practice the hond-jive before the freshmen class skit.

Betsy and a friend enjoy celebrating the First Fall Lawn Party at the new Commons courtyard

Margaret and Tina make new friends with two lucky guys

Helene and a friend from Wake agree that Allgood is not just good but great.

FALL LAWN PARTY

Tommy deserves a drink (only a coke, of course) for helping to keep the Fall Lawn Party safe and secure.

Over seven hundred students from Salem and the Southeast joined together to listen to Allgood at Salem's first social event of the year. What a terrific way to start the year!

Even faculty members, such as Craig Richardson, couldn't resist the music, beer, and fun of this event

CAC WEEKEND ...

Julie, Britt, Rebecca, and Amy show their stuff at the Karaoke sing-a-long.

Salem students enjoy a Pig-Pickin' on Clewell patio on Saturday evening.

with an 80's twist

The first dance of the year was the CAC "80's" theme dance weekend. Everyone was dressed in their best plaid shorts and Izod shirts. A Karaoke sing-a-long on Saturday followed by the 80's dance was the highlight of the weekend. At the dance, a DJ played a variety of 80's tunes and a fun time was had by all.

"Oh my God, I could die." Steffan is totally Prepped out for the first dance weekend as Charlie and Dawn look on.

Meredith and Kim are surrounded by many admiring men.

Question: What do you classify a Friday night shag dance in the Refectory, a Saturday afternoon picnic, a field hockey game, and a Sunday morning love-feast? Family Weekend, of course! This special weekend allowed our parents to become special members of the "Salem Family" and see for themselves what a wonderful place Salem is.

Dr. Partin lectures a different type of student in a mini-class.

Mary Katherine takes time to explain the game plan against Mary-Baldwin to her personal fans.

FAMILY WEEKEND

Many supporting fans and families cheer on the hockey team on Saturday.

Kristin, Family Weekend Co-Chair, and her proud parents take a break from the dance floor at the shag party.

Seniors Anne, Tina, and Amy enjoy Family Weekend one more time before they graduate.

THE GHOULS OF

Halloween at Salem College brought em' crawling from the wood-work. Students celebrated this Halloween holiday with pumpkin carving, scary movies, Halloween dinner, and parties. During the week before Halloween, dorm members decided the fate of each of their pumpkins. A pumpkin with a "split personality" from Bitting took the prize. The pumpkin weighed in at a whopping 200 pounds. At the Halloween dinner, contestants in the costume contest provided chills and thrills. The winner was Susan Cochran as spiderwomen. What screaming fun!!

Bitting's pumpkin with a split personality holds the ribbon for 1st prize.

What a match, Heather and Heather as the Devil and Tinklebell.

INTERCLUB WEEKEND

The Great Pumpkin made its appearance in November at Salem's Interclub Dance Weekend. On Friday night everyone joined together at Tanglewood for hayrides, a bonfire, and a D.J. Saturday night featured a band for the semi-formal in the Commons. The weekend wrapped up with acoustic guitar entertainment during Sunday brunch.

These Salem girls are all dressed up and ready to dance.

Tina and her date dance the night away

Jennifer and Jonathan hug to keep warm at Tanglewood on Friday night.

Ann and Nicole and their dates have fun at the dance.

Miloika, Elizabeth, Jennifer, and dates wait for their turn to go on a hayride.

"Okay you caught us!" Gretchen and her date's expressions can't hide the fact that they're having a lot of fun dancing.

Oh Little Town of Salem

It's Christmas time again. For some, this is a new, exciting experience; for others, a tradition to cherish. A whirl of activities begins with Christmas dinner in the refectory, with everyone dressed in their holiday best. The Candle Tea, the Chorale Concert, the Senior Candle trimming, The SGA bonfire, lovefeast, the treelighting, Festive Finale, Big Sis and Little Sis parties, Secret Santa gift giving and other festive activities surround the stressful week of exams. Then, as exams come to an end, students rush home to be with families to continue their love, as they did with their family at Salem. "Oh Little Town of Salem, how still we see thee lie..."

Molly, Brennan, and Sarah Marsh glow with happiness that the semester is coming to a close.

Getting into the Christmas spirit, Jim Harman helps distribute candles to light up the Candlelight Service and Chorale Concert.

Kathy and Angela celebrate their last Christmas together here at Salem.

Freshmen Holley, Jen, and Stacey are excited about having their first Christmas dinner at Salem.

JAN TERM

January Term at Salem provides students with the opportunity to explore a subject of interest. This year students on campus during Jan Term were able to take departmental courses such as "Hollywood Goes to War" and "The Chemistry and Materials of Art." Other students on campus conducted independent studies or did internships at places such as WXII, RJR, and Sara Lee. Off campus opportunities included doing internships and traveling. This year Salem offered travel courses to such far off places as Germany, Spain, Australia, and the Galapagos Islands!

Salem students drink in the New Year in Grenada, Spain.

Heather takes in the sights of Germany during Jan Term.

"Hi-Ho Turtle Away!" Andi takes a turtle out for a spin on the Galapagos Islands, just as Darwin did 100 years ago.

Dr. Cox's class learns the finer points of speaking to persuade.

Twenty Salemites and Dr. Baker got dressed-up for an evening of dinner and theater at the Opera House in Sydney, Australia.

Of course Jan Term is not all work and no play. Students celebrated the end of Jan Term with a Jan Jam.

Okay, so this didn't actually happen during Jan Term, but it was pretty close to it. In awareness of Black History Month, Onua sponsored an African Dance exhibition on the first day of classes in February.

Winter Formal 1993

On the Friday night of Winter Formal Weekend, Salemites hopped on their Harleys and headed toward the Commons for a Bikers Ball. On Saturday afternoon students and their dates racked it up at Cue & Spirits. Of course, the main event of the weekend was the formal dance at the Marque on Saturday night. Salemites and their dates danced the night away to the tunes of the band, Everything. From black leather and denim on Friday night to sequins and velvet on Saturday night, Salem students went from "Rags to Riches."

Students by day - Hell's Angels by night. Salemites aren't always all pearls and bows.

Steph and Jennifer don their denim and fishnet stockings before going to the Bikers Ball.

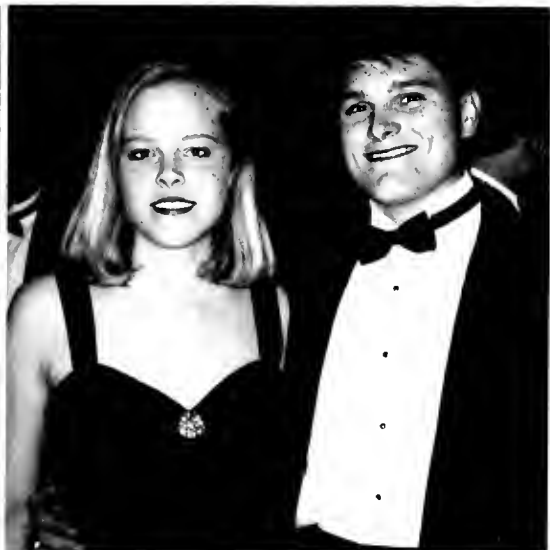

Allison and Gretchen have a rip-roaring good time!

Continuing Ed students Tara and Courtney prove that they can get down with the best of them.

Rags to Riches

Beth is a symbol of elegance at the Marquee.

Julie, Britt and their dates enjoy the festivities on Saturday night.

Gracen's cheasin' hard and having fun.

Sherry and her date take a break from dancing.

The Pierrettes' fall production of "Losing Patients" received rave reviews.

"Losing Patients," a play about mistaken identities, kept the audience in stitches.

As the director, Mary Lucy puts in a lot of time and work to perfect each performance.

THAT'S ENTERTAINMENT

In the fall the Pierrettes presented the comedy "Losing Patients," which featured the acting talents of Salem students Britt Biggs, Laura Dossinger, Lisa Bamford, and Krissi Smith. The spring musical comedy, "Snoopy," featured Salem students Helane Anderson, Britt Biggs, Jennifer Crowl, Emily Todd, Larnie Yuson, Lynette Brooks, and Angela Tatum.

The cast sings about what they see in the clouds.

Peppermint Patty and Chuck ponder love.

Larnie really was the "Big Bow-Wow" as Snoopy.

After months of rehearsal the cast and crew breath a sigh of relief after the final performance.

So Happy Together

Happy Half Hour, Hall Meetings, Keycheck ...

"HOT WATER!" This familiar cry, echoing through the halls would surprise most visitors to Salem. However, it is as much a part of our lives here as homework and Refectory food. We have started from scratch -- from dismal white rooms and bare halls, to create a home-away-from-home. We dragged in new stuff, old stuff, our favorite things from home, and tried to cope with the furniture and dust. We put up posters, pictures, and message boards, and moved things around so many times we can't even remember how it started out. Finally we got everything into place -- fridge, carpet, phone and all-remembered to yell "Man on the hall," and shut up during quiet hours, and settled in for another year. Still, sometimes we got a little crazy...

Julie and Nina start carving the South snowman/pumpkin for Halloween.

Tracy attacks Angle for a tension breaker during Happy Half Hour.

Laura enjoys her huge room in Sisters.

Hally, Anna, and Carrie are Pippi Langstocking wanna-bes.

N I G H T

Whether it is just down the hall or off campus, Salem women always have a good time. Night life at Salem provides students with a time to go out or just stay in and relax. Salem women always know where the action is. From dancing the night away at Ziggy's, fighting off the boys at Wake, or pigging out on hot Krispy Kreme doughnuts, there is never a dull moment among students at night. Who says Salem women only know how to study?

"Feeling a little frustrated?" Anderson can already tell that she has a long night ahead of her.

Heather, English, Paola, and Betsy spend a thrilling and eventful night at a U2 concert at USC.

"Where are the men?" Wake is one place to spend an exciting evening.

The infamous Krispy Kreme Doughnuts knows Salem women by name.

"I wanna dance with somebody!" Ziggy's is a popular place to dance the night away.

L I F E

"All dressed up and ready to go out!" Sarah, Gwen, Sally, Alecia prepare for a night on the town.

"Seventies flashback!" Shannon and Sarah practice their disco moves.

"Reach out and touch someone." Jenny calls a friend to make plans for the exciting night ahead.

SHOULD I STAY OR SHOULD I GO?

That's the question Friday afternoon at Salem. Some Salem women stay weekends and some head for the wild adventure of the open road. We spend our weekends shopping, studying, playing, visiting old friends and making new ones. Weekends are a special part of life at Salem. They offer students a different point of view.

Ashley and Beth spend their weekend away at Ashley's lake house.

Marci packs her car for another weekend of adventure on a road trip.

Kendra and Charla traveled to Auburn for a weekend of fun with their old buddy Rachel!

Jenny and Dianne spend part of their weekend studying in the Commons.

Sunday brunch is one of the highlights of our Salem weekends.

The Gaffney Peach is a familiar sight for Salem girls travelling to Clemson.

SALEM GOES INTERNATIONAL

Heather takes a break from her studies to snap a photo with her classmates.

Michelle celebrates May Day with her Swedish friend, Karen, while "studying" in Angers, France last year.

Imagine spending a semester or a year abroad in France, Austria, or Germany. Every year Salem allows upperclasswomen to do just that and more. These young women gained more than classroom experience. They traveled across Europe and made many new friends. They were immersed in the different European cultures and gained a new global perspective.

While, in Germany and Austria last fall, Angela found a new friend who was always willing to give a warm hug.

Elizabeth discovered that these guys were always willing to pose for a picture with a pretty girl when she journeyed to Germany for Fall term.

NEW INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Yuka Mizutani is a junior transfer student from Japan. Yuka has enjoyed trying many new American things, since she has been here. She especially likes American gravy on her mashed potatoes.

Miloika Penon is a freshman from Costa Rica. Miloika likes Salem, because the people here are so friendly. She hopes to graduate from Salem in 1996 with a degree in Interior Design.

Jin Cheng is a sophomore from China. This is the first time she has ever been in America. Jin hopes to continue her education at Salem and earn a degree in Economics.

Mika Fujimoto is spending her junior year at Salem, as an exchange student from Obirin College in Tokyo. As a foreign student, she is enjoying the classes in her International Relations major.

Each year at Salem College new international students join our student body. This year Mika, Yuka, Jin, and Miloika came from around the world to study at Salem. Studying in the U.S. has given these students the opportunity to not only learn and practice the English language, but to also try American things such as grits! International students provide Salem College with a truly different point of view.

WORKING GIRLS

Each day many Salem students not only go to classes but also go to work. Whether it's on campus or off, Salem students may be found working for a little extra cash. Around campus student workers may be found doing everything from shelving books in the library to building a set for a play in the FAC. The most common student jobs off campus include working in clothing stores and restaurants, and of course, babysitting.

Anita and Andrea are exemplary sales-clerks at Abercrombie & Fitch.

As a technical worker in the library, Jin does everything from shelving to laminating books.

Anne loves ringing up those sales (especially big ones) at American Eagle.

After working at Crabtree & Evelyn for a few months, Heather has become an expert in helping customers choose such scented pleasures as tea, soap, and potpourri.

Michelle has enjoyed working as a salesclerk at Laura Ashley since her freshman year at Salem.

Anne takes a message at her on-campus job with Student Developmental Services.

BIG SIS & LITTLE SIS

Freshmen:

Oh what a Sis,
Late September - it was '92.
What a very stressful time for me.
Thank you Lord for my Big Sis!

Oh what a Sis,
You know I didn't even know her name.
With me as a Sis, you'll never be the same.
I'll drive you crazy - my Big Sis.

Oh I get a funny feeling when I walk in the Refectory.
And she is sitting there thinking
"Oh *#@!"
Oh what's her name?
Isn't it time she started recognizing me?
You are everthing
we dreamed you'd be.
What a goddess, my Big Sis.

Sophomores:

Big Sis, I can hardly express
My mixed emotions until we met
After all I'm forever in your debt.
And Big Sis, I will try to express
My inner feelings and thankfulness for showing me the meaning of success
Ooh Well

Big Sis, please let me explain
Wherever you go, here you will remain.
So let me tell you again & again.
I'll miss you well, well now and forever.

Juniors:

Give a little bit,
Give a little bit of your heart to me,
I'll give a little bit,
I'll give a little bit of my heart to you.

There's so much that we need to share.
So we'll send a smile and show we care.

I'll give a little bit,
I'll give a little bit of my life for you.
So give a little bit,
Give a little bit of your time to me.

See us there with our caring eyes,
Just take our hand, it'll be all right.

Seniors:

In your eyes,
We'll always see,
What you mean to me.
We see the doorway
to 1000 dreams.
The realization of what
Salem Sisters mean.
Oh, we see the light and the heat
In your eyes.
Oh, we want to touch the light
The heat we see in your eyes.

Friends, it's so hard to leave our home here
So much shared and
our moments are slipping away.
We get so sad,
since you've been such a part of our lives here.
We look to the times we've shared to keep us awake and alive.

GLOBAL POINT OF VIEW

Extra! Extra! Read all about it! This just in ... Bill Clinton becomes our first Democratic President in 12 years, beating Bush by 5% in the popular vote, but by a landslide in the electoral college. Ross Perot claimed 19% of the popular vote. More women were elected to Congressional posts. Southern Florida was devastated by Hurricane Andrew, while Iniki ravaged the Hawaiian Islands. The Rodney King trials touched off rioting and looting in L.A. and other major cities. Anita's Hills case against Clarence Thomas brought many similar cases out into public view. Troops were sent to the Middle East again, as Bosnian refugees fled from the conflict in their country. England's Royal Family was in chaos as rumors of Charles and Diana's illicit affairs made headlines. Madonna shocked polite society by publishing her new book, Sex. The Braves lost the World Series to the Toronto Bluejays; and Magic Johnson retired from pro basketball after his October 30th game at Chapel Hill, N.C.

SOME PEOPLE ARE STRANGE

"Kiss, Kiss"

"It makes your skin feel so soft and silky."

"What?... No, I'm awake"

"Don't forget to check your doors for heat"

WHEN YOU'RE AT SALEM

SPORTS

Winning is not everything and although the Field Hockey team did not have a winning season, they had a lot of fun. They did have the pleasure of coming together as a team and accomplishing their goals. Next year's team will have more experience, and they are looking forward to a winning season.

Emily hits a strong one for Salem.

The Team warms up before practice.

Stephanie puts her back into a swing.

FIELD HOCKEY

Where's my shoe?" Jennifer ponders this question while practicing blocking Carone's shot.

Sarah practices her aim.

Pass, Set, Spike...

The Volleyball team includes... Front row: Ivey Clontz and Carla Jimenez. Middle row: Suzi Russell, Elizabeth Marslender, Nancy Georgitis, Elizabeth Haverkamp, and Kim Caver. Back row: Rhonda Salmons (Asst. Coach), Kindra Hartmann, Betsy Johnson, Jennifer Dailey, Jennifer Winters, Cary Clayton, Elizabeth Eubanks and Coach MEwen. Not pictured: Alice Peschl and Michelle Willabus.

Carla lives up to Salem's motto "Dig or Die" as she goes to the ground for a pass.

Passing is the key to Salem's offense.

Serve it up Liz!

Elizabeth prepares for a great pass!

Nancy gets up for a block!

Captains Ivey Clontz and Carla Jimenez were incredibly valuable assets to Salem's volleyball team. Both Captains served as starting setters this year. The court will not be the same next year without Ivey's spunk and Carla's continuous encouragement.

CROSS COUNTRY

"I love this sport!" Ashley smiles for the camera while waiting to get started.

"Three miles, no problem!" The Salem team gets psyched up for the race.

English goes for the gold!

The team encourages one another before they run.

Coach Hixson and many new members gave the Cross Country team a different point of view this season. It was not easy running everyday in unpredictable weather, but they ran rain or shine, during practice and on their own time to give Salem one of its most competitive Cross Country teams.

Gretchen, Ashley, and Kristan give it their all at a Cross Country meet.

EQUESTRIAN TEAM

Salem students have the opportunity to take horseback riding classes at Cozy Fox Farm. Some students who are more competitive take part in Salem's Equestrian team. Team members are: front; Kindra Hartmann, Jennifer Aber (Co-Captain), Julie Smith (Co-Captain), back; Chrys Manos, Sarah Williams, Leslie Howard, Yvonne Marson. Not pictured: Recia Pharr and Krissi Smith.

Two Salem riders warm up before a competition.

"Happy trails to you..." sings Leslie as she trots around the ring.

Yvonne begins her first year at Salem and the Equestrian team with stride.

SWIM TEAM

Although the swim team had a short season, its team members were able to improve their skills and win their final meet. Team members include: front; Karen Hixson (Coach), Elizabeth Craig, Betsy Wood, Andrea Dixon, Cindie Burnette, middle; Anna Katharine Mansfield, Margaret Pettit, Lisa Bamford, Marika Thorpe, Valerie Reynolds (Manager), back; Emily Estes, Gracen Glenn, Danielle Del Guercio, Jennifer Face and Ann Pollard.

"Swimmers take your marks!" Team members prepare to practice the back stroke.

Coach Hixson and her team members' expressions show that swimming is not all fun and games.

Swimming for Salem for her fourth year Jennifer led the team as a co-captain.

Although she is only a sophomore, Danielle's strong swimming ability earned her a spot as team co-captain.

This year the tennis team volleyed, slammed, and served their way to victory. In both singles and doubles matches the Salem team proved their skill to opposing teams.

"There's a hole in my racket!" Betsy Wood reaches for an overhead.

TENNIS

Practice makes perfect every afternoon on the Salem courts.

Cindie keeps her eye on the ball as she volleys to another team member.

SOCCER

Kicking. Dribbling. Passing. Tackling. Running. Scoring. Just a few of the skills the soccer team perfected this spring. Through teamwork and cooperation the soccer team had a great season. Team members include: front Ashley Poston, Nancy Georgitis, Margaret Pike, middle; Anne Harvey, Shawnda Adams, P. J. Smith, Ashley Houston, Holly Harris, Stephanie Hough, back; Paula Dutton (manager), Carrie Mobley, Diane Faulk, Elizabeth Craig, Elizabeth Marslender, Gretchen Illig, Emily Todd, Kelly Carpenter (Coach).

"Hi, I'm a soccer stud." Senior and first-time Salem soccer player, P. J., takes a break during practice.

Gretchen has her hands full (or her "feet-full," rather) while practicing her dribbling skills.

Ashley concentrates on passing the ball to her teammate.

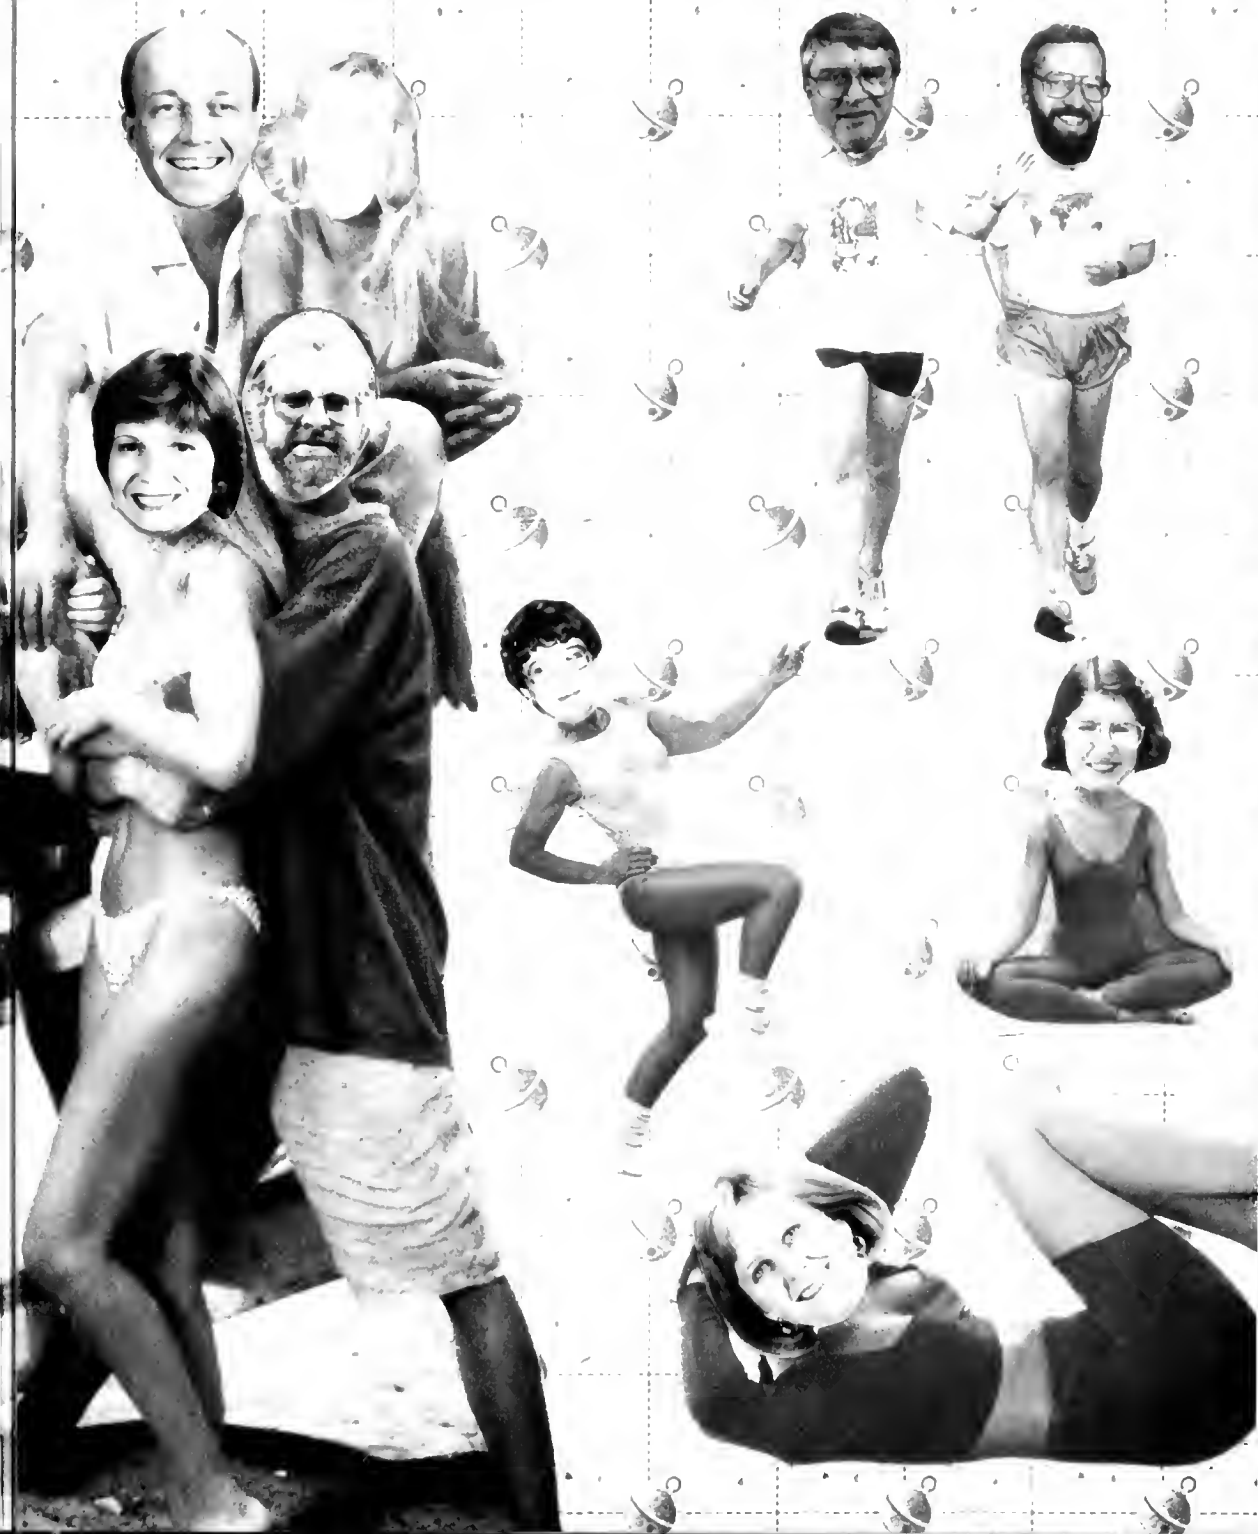

Co-Captains, Ashley, Nancy, and Margaret, lead the team with confidence.

It's a Kick in the Grass!

SALEM COLLEGE 27108:

LIFE AFTER CLASS.

CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

The Executive Board is the link between students and administration, and its members coordinate functions and activities of the SGA. Executive Board also makes necessary appointments to various committees and positions. Executive Board is responsible for running monthly SGA meetings, and they sponsor the annual Christmas Bontire.

Members include... front; Margaret Pike (Sec), Allison Burkette (Pres), Nancy Georgitis (Honor Council); back: Nina Eyrne (Treas), Mandy Eckberg (Interform), and Charli Vlasovich (VP).

THIS IS NOW

CLASS OF 1993

Freshman year we discovered that Salem was just right.

We came a long way in our sophomore year.

We just got better junior year.

Now, senior year, as graduation approaches, we're looking at the world with a Different Point of View.

DO YOU REMEMBER WHEN?

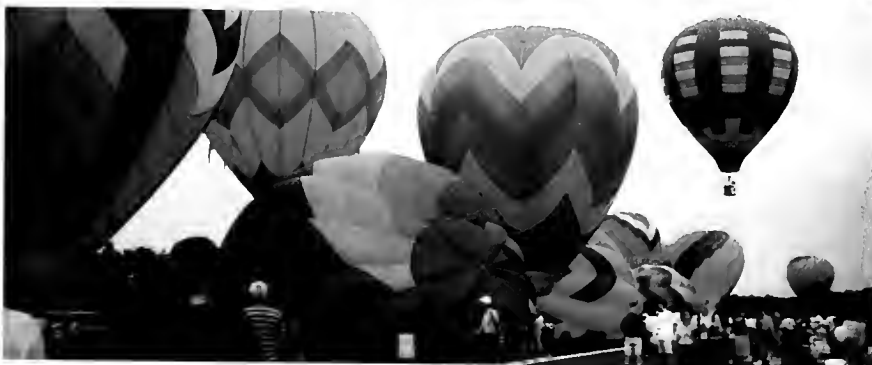

CLOSING

As a women's college with a strong liberal arts program set in a historical district, Salem provides students with the opportunity to see things from a different perspective. January Term, Salem Signature, and the Mentor program are just a few of the things that make Salem unique. Salem students know that the Salem point of view is the Best Point of View.

Ivey Clontz,

We are so proud of you and love you very much. May all your dreams come true.

Mama and Daddy

Your children are not your children.
 They are the sons and daughters of Life's longing for itself.
 They come through you but not from you,
 And though they are with you yet they belong not to you.
 You may give them your love but not your thoughts,
 For they have their own thoughts.
 You may house their bodies but not their souls,
 For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams.
 You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you.
 For life goes not backward nor tarries with yesterday.
 Kahlil Gibran, The Prophet

Stacy Sullivan Dillon, I am deeply proud of all your accomplishments and even more so of you. As you move forward on your life's journey, I wish you all the best! I love you more than words can express.

At this point...

Krispy Kreme is sounding real good.

I don't care!

We are doing it the old way.
#@%* Yeartech.

Who cares if it's spelled wrong.

We'll make these pictures work.

Who gives a #@%*!

Producing the yearbook has certainly been an experience to remember.
We really didn't know what we were getting into this year, but we would like to thank those people we dragged along with us.

To Sarah for her precise work on the People
Section.

To Jill for everything!

To Meredith and Anne for their patience and beautiful photography.

To Deana and Cary for their "sportsmanship."

To Katrina and Shana for coming in to start working at 1:00 a.m. and for their creative copy.

To Stacey for helping with ads.

To Angie, Michelle, and Kristen for helping with the Student Life Section.

To our honorary late-night
yearbook staff members/
SGA officers, Charla and Nina "Dr. Ruth" Byrne.

To our hallmates on Second Floor South and everyone else that listened to our ventings, donated pictures, or said "Good Luck on the Yearbook!"

To the faculty and staff for being very cooperative about having their pictures made.

To our parents and families
for their support.

And to Rock 92 at 4:00
a.m.

At this point, we are passing the book on to
you. We hope you enjoy it!

Gwen, Alice, and Shan
